

UC Davis Department of Religious Studies'

INDIA STUDIES INITIATIVE Presents

KABIR IN PERFORMANCE

Jayanti Sahasrabuddhe (Vocal)

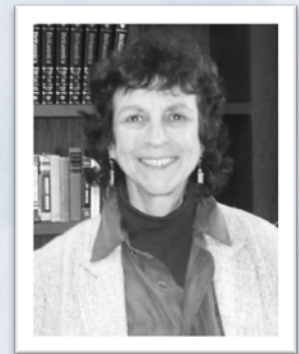

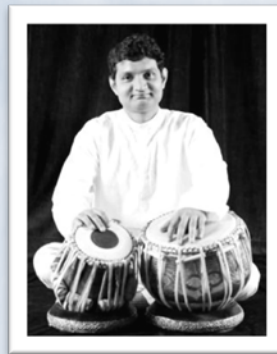

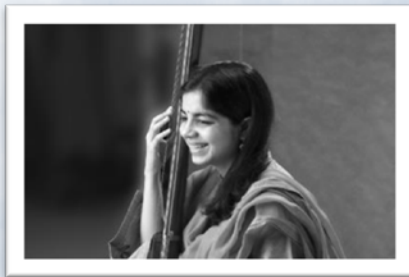

Nikhil Pandya (Tabla)

Vivek Datar (Harmonium)

Prof. Linda Hess (Narration)

Saturday, October 5th, 6:00-8:00 PM,

Vanderhoef Studio, Mondavi Center

Join us for an evening of Kabir in Performance. Prof. Linda Hess (Stanford University) will introduce the poems of Kabir, a fifteenth century poet, mystic and social critic, who is claimed as a saint by both Hindus and Muslims in South Asia. Jayanti Sahasrabuddhe and her ensemble will bring the poetry of Kabir alive through music.

The event is free and open to the public. For further information, please contact Archana Venkatesan avenkatesan@ucdavis.edu.

The Department of Religious Studies gratefully acknowledges the financial support of the India Studies Advisory Council.